Mrs. Fahey, Sr.

Dies After

Illness

Mrs. Edmund F. Fahey Sr., died at her home in Bay St. Louis last night.

Mrs. Fahey had been ill for some time, and recently returned from a New Orleans hospital. She was the widow of Dr. Edmund Fahey, who founded Fahey's Drug Store and Fahey's Funeral Home.

Mrs. Fahey was the former Irma Tomasich and was a native of Bay St. Louis.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Irma diBenedetto.

She also is survived by two brothers and two sisters—Arthur Tomasich and Vivian Power of New Orleans, Ruby Funk of Houston, Tex., and Jody Tomasich of Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. Fahey was in her middle 50's.

"DOLLAR DAYS" TO TREAT COUNTY PEOPLE TO BARGAINS THIS WEEK

The bargains are there for you to get at Hancock County's first "Dollar Days" Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Almost every store in the area has its values waiting. You can get a fine wrist watch for only $1 if you purchase an appliance.

There are three giant giveaways in one store alone.

Scattered throughout this newspaper are valuable coupons which will give you discounts at appliances and more.

The department and hardware stores have placed on sale some of their best items in a genuine effort to make this Festival of Values a smashing success.

You'll find that even laundries are participating in "Dollar Days."

The entire project is sponsored by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, and operated under the direction of a merchants' committee appointed by Chamber President O. W. Delph.

But "Dollar Days" actually are an invitation from all the county's stores to the people who live in Hancock County and the area which immediately surrounds it.

Mr. Delph predicted great success for "Dollar Days" because of the cooperation of the businesses, and he also predicted that this will become a semi-annual event.

The story of Gulfport's "Dollar Day" follows the same pattern. It started on a hopeful note, and boomed because the merchants were willing to give genuine bargains in keeping faith with their rates.

The Hancock County "Dollar Day" are especially well timed, because they permit buying for the new school year at bargain rates. They also give a chance to get an early and value-laden start on fall wardrobes for both men and women.

Many shoppers have found that they can save considerable money by purchasing those many little things they need around the house during "Dollar Days."

Too, they warn customers that the advertised bargains are for "Dollar Days" only, and the prices will return to normal with the opening of business on Monday.

The stores will operate during their regular hours only for "Dollar Days."

Delph Predicts Success For 'Dollar Days'

O. W. Delph, president of the Hancock Chamber of Commerce told the Lions Club that Dollar Days would be successful at their regular meeting here Monday.

Mr. Delph, who reviewed the activities of the Chamber of Commerce this year, said that "Dollar Days," which will be held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, will be successful.

Mr. Delph continued by saying that Dollar Days would not only be here to stay, but would probably be a semi-annual event.

Reviewing the year's activity of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Delph began by praising the work of its secretary, Mrs. Mabel Green. He also noted that due to the 1952 membership drive the Chamber of Commerce has 110 members, 57 more than before the drive with 21 members coming from out of Bay St. Louis.

Other Chamber of Commerce events discussed by Mr. Delph were the Fourth of July picnic which over 4,000 people were entertained and the leadership in the new bridge dedication.

A new membership drive for the Chamber of Commerce was also proposed by Mr. Delph with plans for an inter-club contest.

The Lions meanwhile heard a report on their vending machines which are adding to supply funds for their sight conservation program.

The Forestry Queen contest in Hancock County was also discussed with the possibility that it will be held next week.

The Lions had contacted C. H. Morgan, district ranger at Wiggins, who promised that the contest would be held next week with the winner going to the regional at Laurel.

Guests of the Lions at their meeting were District Attorney Boyce Holliman, Miss Elizabeth Jane Vassalli, Chamber of Commerce entry in the Miss Hospitality contest, Miss Geraldine Anne Martin, the American Legion entry in the Miss Hospitality contest, R. G. Hubbard, Jr., Supervisor for best five in Hancock County, Nellus Rhodes, Justice of the Peace; Mrs. Mable Green, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Elliot Casanova, Leo Parker, and George Shadoin.

The next Lions meeting will be held Sept. 24.

Despite the loss to McGill, Coach Farley Day was not disappointed. "The team will show improvement against Foley," he said. Most of the boys are green, but we'll improve as the season goes along."

Day said that Santa Cruz will definitely not make the Foley game, which might weaken the team.

Scoring started in the McGill game when Pal Easton, a speedy halfback, scored for McGill. Billy Scarborough, Stanislaus quarterback, set up the first Rock touchdown in the second quarter when he made a 30 yard run with excellent downfield blocking.

Scarborough then passed to Bill Wolfe, the Rocks' end for 30 more yards and Stanislaus scored. The try for extra point failed, however.

A blocked kick set up another McGill tally, but Stanislaus, ace guard, Maurice Artigues, broke through to stop the extra point try. McGill pulled ahead again before was concluded in a plunge by Jerry Cottrell.

Billy LaMaire, Stanislaus fullback, drove ten yards in the second half to get the touchdown for the Rocks, but McGill tallied once more in the final minutes of the game.

Stanislaus had two close chances to get back some points but failed in both tries. In the final quarter Stanislaus recovered a fumble and drove to the McGill two yard line, only to lose possession on a fumble. Then in the waning minutes of the game, A. G. Burke put the Rocks in scoring position with a 40 yard run, but the clock ran out.

The Stanislaus team is a bit bruised after its rugged contest with McGill, but all the kids should be out by the Foley game. They'll have trouble in stopping a pair of heavy Foley fullbacks, however, in 210 pound George Wirth and 180 pound Ken Team, both seniors.

Stan. Stanton Hall of Hattiesburg, who is chairman of the subcommittee, said, "That $16,000 spent for wood preservative would have helped out a great deal on your roads, wouldn't it?"

Doyle agreed.

The big gun in the attack was Hubbard, who said he paid all the bills for his beat, bought $22,000 worth of equipment, and has a $9,000 surplus of county funds.

Meanwhile, he said, Jones "has been broke since May."

Sen. J. O. Clark of Luka and Rep. Luther Sims of Lowndes County sat in with Sen. Hall at the hearing. They will report now to the full committee, which is headed by Rep. John Junkin of Natchez.

Bay High Enrollment Sets Record

The Bay St. Louis Public School opened with the largest enrollment in its history of the school.

There were 23 more students in high school than last year and about the same number in the grades except the eighth grade, which was increased from 39 last year to 55 this year, causing a division of the class into two sections and necessitating an additional teacher.

The greatest difficulty facing the grade department is in the lack of room space until the new building is completed. We are now using two rooms in the original building not suitable for classrooms and one room as an emergency classroom in the Youth Center where we are already using one high school classroom and the class for handicapped children.

Nominations were made on the basis of service record for the past year. The queen and her four maids will be elected by secret ballot at the next meeting.

Mrs. John Rutherford, Jr., rehabilitation chairman, reported at the meeting that 235 magazines were sent to the Gulfport Veterans Hospital.

Mrs. Claiborne Laidner, Mrs. John Rutherford Jr., Mrs. Leroy Luke, Mrs. Lucien Kidd, Mrs. Arthur Loiacano, Mrs. Joseph Compretta, Mrs. Rene Bernom, Mrs. Russell Elliott, Mrs. Guy Bufkin.

ST. STANISLAUS MEETS FOLEY HIGH HERE FRIDAY

St. Stanislaus will start the football season for Bay St. Louis here Friday night when it meets Foley High of Alabama at Stanislaus Stadium at 8 p. m.

The Rocks, ready to come back after a 28-13 defeat at the hands of McGill in Mobile last week, will be without the services of center Woody Santa Cruz who suffered an injury in his team's opener.

Despite the loss to McGill, Coach Farley Day was not disappointed. "The team will show improvement against Foley," he said. Most of the boys are green, but we'll improve as the season goes along."

Edith Dantagnan Is Married To John Piazza

Edith B. Dantagnan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dantagnan, was married to Pvt. John Piazza, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Piazza, Saturday morning at Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

Monsignor Gmelch officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her attendants were her sisters, Julie Dantagnan, as maid of honor and Mrs. Lee Hayden, bridesmaid.

Norton Haas was best man for Private Piazza. Don Kroening was a groomsman and Lee Hayden an usher.

The bride's gown was of candlelight satin. It featured a cello neck, fitted bodice and was buttoned down the front.

The satin folds extended into a long train. Her veil was a rosepoint bolero. She carried a satin covered prayer book with a white orchid and fleur de amour and stephanotis.

The attendants' gowns were of iridescent green taffeta, with fitted bodices, full skirts and boat necklines. They carried sheaths of beige and rust California chrysanthemums and wheat. Rust miniature chrysanthemums were fashioned into hats for the attendants.

For the ceremony, the church was decorated with fall flowers, chrysanthemums, asters and white gladioli. Mayor Francis Hursey of Pass Christian sang.

The Dantagnan home was the scene of a reception following the marriage. Arrangements of butterfly lilies, asters and chrysanthemums decorated the home.

The mother of the groom assisted in receiving, wearing a rose crepe dress with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Dantagnan was gowned in winter white linen, with a white beaver hat and brown accessories. She wore a corsage of rust chrysanthemums.

The couple will live in Columbia, S. C., where Pvt. Piazza is now stationed. For the trip, the bride chose a charcoal gray wool suit, with a stole. Her hat was red, and other accessories, black.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Polack, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lemann, Dr. Joseph Morris, Vic Schiro, Eunice Dell, Leah Glisson, Joseph Wright, Mrs. Karl Salesby, Irene Gerard, Frank Ber, Millie Pream, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Munster, Ralph Long, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miranbell, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Paylot, Mr. and Mrs. John Legendre, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kraus, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thibodeaux, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Quarles, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Reith, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Perkowsky, Mr. and Mrs. Armon Preau, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bay High Lineup Almost Set For Opener

The Bay High Tigers are working hard for their initial encounter Sept. 26 with O. L. V. in Pascagoula.

Thirty-three boys have been reporting for practice and with each day's work-out a little of the greenness is beginning to wear away and each boy is beginning to look more like a football player.

After a couple of days of scrimmage it looks like the following boys have a slight edge to start things rolling against O. L. V.: Donald Cole or Frank Wheat at center; Ray Smith, and John Brooks, or Malcolm Moreau, as guards; Kent Sellier and Larry Smith, tackles; Charles Taravouille or Tommy Holden and Clayton Adams, ends; Terrell Randolph and Wayne Alliston, QB duties; Hugo Favre, fullback; Ronald Landers or J. C. Perkins and Bill Cooper or Henry Monti at the halfback slots.

Other boys for their first year of varsity ball and showing vast improvement are John Peterson, Charles Moran, Billy Taylor, and A. J. Peterson, ends; Manuel Manry, Fred DeHann and Charles Carver, tackles; Milford Favre, John Perkins, guards. Ronald wheat, John Demoran and Allen Wilkerson are linemen who just started out and have had little time to show their abilities.

Two or three other boys have reported for practice but have shown little desire to make things interesting for opponents. Some of these boys have both the size and ability but seem to be short on determination.

The Bay High Boosters' Club will have its kick-off meeting September 24 at 7:30 p. m. All persons interested in Bay High activities are urged to attend and back this program.

Little Theatre's Next Play Is Set For Sept. 24, 25, 26

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre will present its fourth play of the 1953 season, Sept. 24, 25 and 26.

The play, "Brighten The Corner," is a hilarious farce-comedy by John Cecil Holm, that will keep you rolling in the aisles from opening to closing curtain.

Full of plots and counter plots that keep backfiring to such an extent you don't know what to expect next. The play is under the capable direction of Doctor Harold Keefe, veteran director-actor of the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre.

For the first time in many years, Pass Christian is well represented. In this play are Eileen Kemp who plays Dell Marshall, John Kovacs playing Jeffrey C. Talbot and Sylvia Hincks who plays the delivery girl, Erik Lundberg, also of the Pass worked on the construction of the set and the terrace, Geraldine Hincks on scenery.

Other members of the cast are, Darling Normand as Jeri Carson, Juanita Miller as Opal Harris, Mark Solomon as Neil Carson, Mrs. McElhenney has been recast with Imogene Allison playing the part. Officer Robertson will be played by Edgar Landers of Waveland.

From Fenton we have James D. Mauffray playing the role of Townsend Marshall.

Admission is by membership card or tickets may be purchased at the door for $1, plus tax.

MEET THE 1953 ST. STANISLAUS ROCK-A-CHAWS - - -

Bay St. Louis' football season opens Friday night when St. Stanislaus plays Vigor. The Rock-A-Chaws actually opened against McGill at Mobile last week, but this is the first showing for the home folks. Coach Farley Day has an inexperienced team, and it's not a very heavy one, but it showed, even in losing against McGill, that it can go far during the course of the season.

HOME AGENT NOTES

by: Miss Sarah Weaver

During the vacation months, you mothers are there on the spot to remind Johnny or Susie to wash his hands before coming to the table. Schools have opened now and the children aren't eating lunch at home, but in the school lunch room.

It is natural for children to play-out-of-doors and it's natural for them to get dirty, especially their hands. Their teachers make every effort at school to see that each boy or girl stays clean, but her job is many times doubled by that of the mother at home.

And many schools do not have the facilities that encourage hand-washing and make it easy. Even where lavatories are available in the rest rooms, there is often no soap or towels. What's the use of running cold water over the hands without soap? And what's the use of washing hands and drying them on soiled blue jeans or dresses or a common towel used by many?

Disease germs live in dirt. Most of the intestinal disturbances are caused by germs that are most commonly spread by personal contact. These include typhoid, para-typhoid, dysentery, strep infections, and some authorities think even polio.

We teach and talk clean hands, clean bodies, clean school rooms, clean play grounds. But are facilities available at the school to protect your child? Johnny and Susie read in their health books about washing their hands before eating after going to the toilet, but where and how?

If the school budget can't afford soap and towels, parents can help, as can 4-H Clubs, community and civic groups.

Visit your school, including toilets and lunch room. What kind of drinking fountains does your school have? What kind of rest-rooms? What place is used for handwashing? Does your school have towels and soap for the children to use each day—not once a month? Is there a place to put used paper towels to keep them out of the floors and school grounds?

Making Kick-Kick Ear Rings. You've probably seen someone wearing the cotton face-luck ear rings that can easily and inexpensively be made to match any costume. The following directions will enable you to make your own.

Cut two pieces of kick-kick with 21 points each. Place one on the other so that the points fit, using two corners of kick-kick, the prominent corner will be the one side toward you.

Using a large needle and number 8 double thread, take a stitch through the front of the first set of points (two thicknesses of points); then the back of the second set. Repeat until all points are on the thread and draw up tightly and tie in a hard knot. Clip threads and trim loose edges.

Use small amount of airplane glue to fasten raw edges. Glue on to ear screw back, being sure to use a few fibers of cotton with glue to make it stick. Press kick-kick on and finish center with bead or other artificial center.

Ants

Everybody is complaining about ants in their kitchen and other places in their homes. Inside the house, the chlordane household spray will usually give 2 to 3 weeks control. Apply to the baseboards and windows with a small brush or a paint brush.

For outside control to keep them from coming in the house, you can top ants at their bed with a dust or liquid. Ask your home agent or county agent for a copy of Extension Publication 245, "Kill Household Insects" for complete directions.

Virginia Seal Returns From European Tour

If you have to be sick, try it on the Ile De France. If you must be strikebound, be strikebound on the Riviera. If Zsa Zsa Gabor wants to buy the dress you choose, step around the corner and have another just like it made for yourself.

Those are a few of the experiences being detailed by Virginia Seal, who returned this week from a 10-day tour of Europe.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Seal, the pretty Bay St. Louis girl, traveled with friends from New Orleans. The group visited England, London in particular and the English countryside in general; Belgium, Holland; took a steamer trip down the Rhine; went on to Switzerland, Italy and, finally, Paris.

"The spots in Paris" said Virginia. "It's just beautiful and if I could do it all again, I'd probably just visit England Italy and France."

The group was detained by the nationwide strike which occurred while they were on the Riviera. It was, said Virginia, no great inconvenience aside from the fact that the famous sun spot is very expensive.

In Paris the group of girls salons of clothes designers, where actress Zsa Zsa Gabor was luckier than Virginia and managed to buy the dress they'd both chosen. A dressmaker elsewhere gladly made Virginia a copy of the gown, however.

The flaw, if there was one, came on the return trip. The Ile De France ran into a cyclone and her passengers suffered from seasickness as a result. "It made home-coming all the more pleasant," thought said Virginia. "There's nothing like coming back home."

Anything thing they do in Europe, we can do better."

Oh yes, Virginia brought back a bikini bathing suit, which she says is quite modest. Her mother says it will fit nicely in a bureau drawer.

According to local fishermen green trout and perch bite best on falling tides, and speckles on rising tides. A few may be caught at any time.

Now that the dove season opened Tuesday of this week for that split season, many of our local hunters were on hand to welcome the season and bagging the prize doves again.

Several groups were out Tuesday and report some good shooting despite the warm weather.

Following are the dates of the hunting season on ducks, geese, woodcocks, jack snipe and doves: Duck—Nov. 17 - Jan. 10, as in Louisiana. Geese—Same as duck. Woodcock—Dec. 10 - Jan. 18. Jack Snipe—Dec. 27 - Jan. 10. Dove—Sept. 15 - Sept. 29 and Dec. 27 - Jan. 10. Don't forget to purchase that hunting license. It will save you embarrassment as well as money!

Regarding fishing Al Kingston says it's mighty hard to find time to do both fishing and hunting. He is an ardent enthusiast of both.

Billy O'Neal, a regular week-end fisherman, says you don't have to go great distances to get those big speckles - to prove it he caught a long string of the speckled beauties Sunday just off the mouth of Bayou Caddy. He really knows how to get 'em!

Albert Alexander, O. Juneau, J. E. Newton, Frank Creighton, Ray Marino and W. J. Oliver, Jr., all of Baton Rouge, made a weekend trip to the marshes and report some good fishing and a great catch as they put it. They were aboard the Champney, of Bayou Caddy with Russ Elliott as skipper.

Dr. Rucke, of Oschner's Clinic, New Orleans and his party were also fishermen to the marshes—as usual they made a good catch of reds and speckles.

Dr. A. P. Smith and B. D. Hogue made a nice catch of green trout up Jordan River during the week. The "Doc" knows his onions when it comes to using a fly rod, according to Hogue, who is good himself.

Dick (Kaboon) Daley is at his port of duty at Bayou Carry Fishing Camp and invites his friends to come and see him. Dick says he hasn't time to mix fishing with work, but he still knows how to mix 'em on land.

Leroy Luke after being one of the judges at the Legion Junior Fishing Rodeo, has gotten the fever but says he hasn't time to go after them. Anyway, he and Frank Taconi were throwing the net the other day and caught a whale of a flounder off the Legion pier.

Our old friend Keiser Schaefer says the reds are gone from the North end of the seawall, but he still goes after them—expecting!

Charley Bevins, the new barber at Piazza Barber Shop, loves fishing of any kind, he says—wants someone to tell him where to get 'em. It takes time, Charley!

Attention—The water in Pearl River, Jordan River and Mulatto Bayou are fine at this time—trout and perch are being caught regularly, according to those fishing in these streams.

Flounders and soft crabs have not been giving so well at late according to those who have been after them. A change in the tides should fix things up pretty soon.

Fire Movie

At Schools

W. L. Shaddix, representing the Southern States Forest Fire Commission, Inc., is visiting some schools of the Bay St. Louis in the interest of forest fire programs this fall.

The commission is helping make a series of conservation sound movies free on loan to the schools of the Gulf Coast. The visual aids are donated by various foundations, commercial, and philanthropic groups.

Signs for posting by woodland owners here will later be distributed free and which reads: "Hunters welcome if you Fight Woods Fires."

The commission is a non-profit privately financed corporation formed 14 years ago in Columbus, Miss., at a conference and to work in schools for timber and game protection education. More than 1,000 bankers, lumbermen, machinery interests, and timber growers of Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama and other southern states subscribe.

Big Jim Starts 57th Year As Ole Miss Rooter

Oxford, Sept. 17.—For 57 years the most enthusiastic rooter for the Ole University Mississippi campus this week as Blind Jim Ivy, self-styled "Dean of Freshmen" for well over half a century, took his favorite seat on the steps of the Lyceum building and began making plans and pronostications for the year's activities at the University.

"Use the Dean," said Blind Jim, "and about the first thing I'm going to do is make my speech to the freshmen Thursday night. I'm going to tell them just expected of them and what's not expected of them, so they won't get into any trouble."

Jim also was ready with his annual prediction for the football team which he has followed for 57 years. "We're going to win all our games," he vociferated, "and I expect to be right back in that Sugar Bowl come next New Year. I've been to more Ole Miss games than any other man who ever lived, and never seen them lose yet."

Now 82 years old, Jim was in his early teens when he got coal tar paint in his eyes while helping to paint a Tallahatchie River bridge.

Several years later in 1896 he wandered into the University baseball park when the Rebels were playing the University of Texas. The Texans were leading by a hefty margin, a student on the sidelines told him, so Jim began cheering for Ole Miss in his now famous loud booming voice. The Rebels were strangely inspired by Jim's enthusiastic rooting, and won the game decisively. From the non he became a campus fixture.

Not long after his arrival, Blind Jim proclaimed himself "Dean of Freshmen" and has held that title since. Members of the freshman class traditionally are assigned to guide him about the campus and on several occasions he has been led by three generations of freshmen in the same family.

Four years ago Blind Jim hit the headlines when he got married for the second time after a whirlwind courtship of one week. His first wife, also blind, died a number of years ago.

Jim met his future bride one Sunday morning at the Second Baptist Church in Oxford. She was 64-year-old Ada Davis of West Point.

"Seemingly it was a divine spirit which struck me all of a sudden, and told me what to do," Jim explained later. The following Saturday they were married.

In spite of his physical handicap, Jim is still a fine physical specimen. He is well over six feet high and walks with a briskness that many a younger man would envy. Years of association with an academic world have given him a fine command of English, which he uses in a colorful manner.

For many years Jim operated a candy and refreshment stand inside the Lyceum building, but more recently he has been making his daytime headquarters in the foyer of the Cafeteria. He is always there ready to reminisce, or to solicit donations for his football traveling fund.

He also extends his fund-raising prowess to civic projects, his current effort being a campaign to build a new roof for his beloved Second Baptist Church. Jim is an ordained minister and his love and faith in God has been a reassuring comfort to him in his nearly 60 years of darkness.

Sometimes in the spring Jim wistfully remembers back through the long years when he was able to see the fresh green trees and grass and the beautiful multicolored of blooming flowers, but he has never despaired.

Mrs. William Baird entertained informally with a porch luncheon at her home on Courtney Lane Thursday. Present were Mrs. A. M. Dantzier, daughter of Mrs. Baird, Mesdames Tom Parker, John Parker, Pauline Dabney, George Shields, Ora Barksdale and George Moring.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington Hilzlm Beach Hurst, have recently returned from a month's motor trip through Mexico, spending some time in Mexico City, Taxco and the surrounding towns. While in Taxco, they stayed at the Victoria Hotel, which is noted for its beauty of architecture and landscaping. Throughout the whole trip the 60 degree weather was most delightful and the multitude of flowers made a brilliant and colorful background for the old world charm of that country.

Mr. E. O. Hunt, owner and manager of Kittiwake Camp, spent last week with his grother, Mr. W. R. McFarney, in El Dorado, Ark. While there, Mr. Hunt visited other members of his family and friends, going down to spend a few days in Jennings, Ark. where he attended high school.

The Baptist Student Union of New Orleans held a two day session at Camp Kittiwake. Dr. J. D. Gray, pastor of the St. Charles Avenue Baptist Church, New Orleans, was one of the principal guest speakers. Dr. Gray is an outstanding Baptist leader of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Witherspoon, 754 West Beach, report that their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Caffery and children, Taylor, Martha and Barbara have returned to their home in New Orleans for the winter.

Gin whistles are blowing in Mississippi now and there's cotton to be picked from approximately 3 million acres. More and more picking is done mechanically.

Mississippi GOLD FIELDS

As always, cotton will be Mississippi's biggest money crop this year—and improved methods of growing and harvesting are contributing still more to the State's prosperity.

The telephone, too, plays an important part in Mississippi's prosperity. Fast communication to and from every part of the State—growing cities, small towns and rural areas—speeds production, expands markets, makes for more convenience and comfort all along the line. Mississippi also benefits from the more than 14 million dollars a year in taxes paid to telephone people living in the State. This money adds to Mississippi's prosperity by providing more jobs for Mississippi people, more sales and greater incomes for Mississippi business. We pay about 2 1/2 million dollars in taxes yearly to the State, counties and cities of Mississippi.

Your Telephone Company contributes much to the State's continuing prosperity—while providing ever-improving service to its Mississippi customers.

WHAT'S IN A TREE?

The growing, harvesting, manufacturing and marketing of Mississippi's forest resources bring full and part-time employment to over 100,000 workers... pay over $500,000 EACH WORKING DAY in wages and salaries... and create almost one-fourth of our total income.

This vital contribution to the economic welfare of Mississippi from our forest resources is an important factor in the prosperity of the state.

The future development of these forest resources is assured as Mississippi and its citizens continue to provide an atmosphere of fair and friendly cooperation for our forest industries.

THE TEEN TATTLER

by Patsy Shadoin

The Ladd Memorial Stadium is Mobile proved to be a scene of excitement, as the Mobile "Yellow Jackets" toppled St. Stanislaus Rockchaws, 26 to 13. Even the peppy cheering of Humphrey Kersene and squad couldn't bring the Rocks to victory.

Among the disappointed S. S. C. fans who attended the game were Kinta Kergosien, Dorothy Laroux, Moises Garcia, Paul Loup, Bernard Wolfe, Gerald Gex, Andre Arceneux, Sister and Edmund Sullivan, Janet and Helen Genin, Di and Julie Blanchard, Jeanell Mitchell, Dattée Loup, Gary and Jimmy Gilmore, Jeanette Monti, Honorine Damborno, Patsy Favre, Dottie Scafield, Harold Johnson, Joe Polazano, Pam Crasto, Gus Aime, Jim Mooney, Marcia Aragues, D. J. Luc, Elodie Breche, and Humphrey Kersene.

—Stanislaus' next game will be with Foley of Foley, Alabama, at the Stanislaus stadium, Friday.

HERE AND THERE

Dattée and Paul Loup, entertained friends at a back to school party Sept. 8 at their home in Weveland. Paul left the 13th, to attend Ole Miss.

Donald Levy, Larry Scharff, and Billy Cooper returned Labor Day weekend from a trip to Florida. The boys motored through Florida in Larry's car. Donald and David have left for Tulane, while Larry has gone to Northwestern.

Dianne Seuzeneau spent this past weekend at the home of Connie Weston in New Orleans. While there she attended some of the

Local Students
Are Greeted At Ole Miss

Five students from Bay St. Louis and four from Pass Christian, all new at the University of Mississippi participated in a four-day orientation program, Sept. 14 thru Sept. 17.

Highlights of the first week of school was the famous "Welcome Rebel" party in the city square of Oxford, where a section was roped off for a street dance and pep rally Thursday night.

Members of the Welcoming and Orientation Committees met all buses and trains at Oxford and Batesville, acted as campus guides, and helped new students to get acquainted with their strange surroundings.

From Bay St. Louis are Harvey P. Cole, William F. Cooper, Moises Garcia, Paul F. Loup and J. P. Mooney; from the Pass are Jerry Bates, Darlene Larson and Suzanne Moffett.

City Echoes

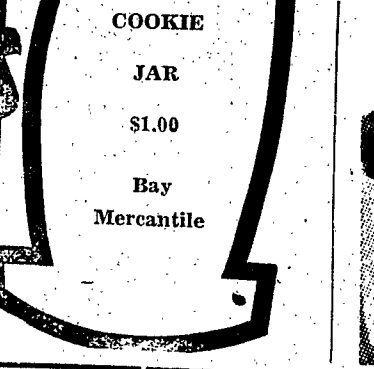

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hunt of Newton, Miss., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Alston.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Demoran will leave Friday for New York for a week and a half.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Nicaise and sons are now occupying their home, 233 Sycamore St. after several months away.

Week-end guests at New Orleans were Mrs. Juanita Badeaux and Mrs. M. A. Badeaux and also Jackie Lotz at the home of Mrs. C. L. Reab.

THE MISSISSIPPI TAX on malt beverages is the highest of any in the 48 states. The beer industry pays more than $4 million a year in Mississippi taxes, making it the fifth largest taxpayer in the state. The growth of the beer industry in the Magnolia State is due to increased public acceptance of legally regulated beer as the beverage of moderation.

COASTING

Doctor and Mrs. Millard L. Bland, of New Orleans, were recent week-end guests of the Killian Huggers. For many years, Mrs. Bland's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kitchen, had a home at the Bay where the family spent all their vacations. Mrs. Bland's idea of a nice stroll is to walk from Sears Avenue in Waveland to Clermont Harbor and back.

Returning to their New Orleans home this past week after having spent the summer at their Waveland home, were Donald and Virginia Halsey and their children, Agnes, Elizabeth and John, who are fourteen months old. The length of the swimming pool in a bright red and yellow life preserver. Honest!

As the Halseys left, George and Noel Williams and their baby took over the house for a week's vacation.

Joining the Williams, was Jennifer Barnes, or Atlanta, Ga. Noel's sister, who will make her debut in New Orleans this winter. She will stay with her grandmother, Mrs. C. S. Barnes.

Lingering at their beach home after the Labor Day weekend, were the Chris Nungessers and Mrs. Nungesser's mother, Mrs. Daniel Holderith.

Visiting Gladys and Peter Monrose were Peter Jr. and Mary Margaret and their two lovely little daughters, Peggy and Renee.

The Howard Perillats had as guests at their beautiful home on Nicholson Avenue, Mrs. Perillat's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Richard, and their four children, Cathy, George and George who spent their vacation in the swimming pool.

Major and Mrs. Ernest R. Clifton (Margaret Dicks) on their way back from their honeymoon in New Mexico, stayed for a few days at Pine Shadows, the Dicks' home, before going on to their new home at the U. S. Marine Air Base in Cherry Point, North

Plan Equipment For Valena C. Jones School Lunchroom

Plans to add equipment to the lunchroom at the Valena C. Jones School was the highlight of the school's first PTA meeting of this session.

Some 16 members attended the meeting. It was tentatively decided that each PTA family would donate funds to buy much-needed utensils for the school kitchen and lunch room.

Among new members of the PTA this year are the four new faculty members at the school. They are: Mr. J. E. Smith, Principal, Mrs. Mary Jones, teacher for the third and fourth grades, Ruth Evans, Home economic teacher, Coach Willie Harper, social science and athletics.

Contributions to the library fund this week came from Mrs. Newlin of New Orleans and Miss Mary Kittrell.

Library Now Has Classified 2,196 Books

The assistant librarians sent by the Mississippi Library Commission to work at the Hancock County library last week gave classification numbers to 2,196 books. Miss Louise Crawford, librarian, reported this week.

The workers, she said, hope to return soon to give added assistance in arranging the approximately six thousand new volumes at the library.

Contributions to the library fund this week came from Mrs. Newlin of New Orleans and Miss Mary Kittrell.

Bay High PTA Holds First Meeting

The Bay High Parents Teachers Association held its first meeting of the year Tuesday, with discussions of the new faculty members heading the program.

Present as guests were Mayor John Seafie and the City Commissioners, who were also presented to the new members.

Mrs. W. Erwin gave suggestions for themes to be used for the 1954 P. T. A. sponsored carnival. Those present were urged to attend the October meeting in order to vote one on these plans.

Also reported as part of the business plan for a membership drive, to be headed by Mrs. Emily Rausche, membership chairman.

Hancock County Gets Additional Farm-House Loans

A new allotment of Federal funds for farm housing loans in Hancock County has been announced by Charles F. Burrill, County Supervisor of the Farm-House Administration at Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Purpose of the credit is to finance homes and farm buildings for farm families. Veterans receive preference. The loans bear 4 percent interest and are repayable over periods up to 43 years.

Since the demand for these loans far exceeds the limited loan funds, owners receiving all or a substantial portion of their income from the sale of farm commodities may qualify as borrowers. A loan may be made to improve a farm on which the operator works off the farm only if he or members of his family are farming on a sizeable scale. These loans may not be used to construct rural residences or other buildings for families not generally recognized as farmers.

An FHA Committee in each county, composed of three local citizens, at least two of whom are farmers, decides who is eligible. In Hancock County, committee members are Alfred J. Smith, Thomas W. Dossert, and Sylvester S. Moran. Mr. Smith and Mr. Dossert live at Rt. No. 3, Piquette, and Mr. Moran at Kiln, Miss.

Since this new type of credit was established by Congress four years ago, about 16,399 farm owners throughout the country have used the aid to improve their homes and buildings. Loans amounting to $81,416,000 nationwide have been made for new houses, for repairing and remodeling old houses for new barns, poultry houses, and other buildings, and to improve existing buildings. Numerous loans also have included funds for farmstead water systems.

County Agent Notes

Where flies have built up immunity to lindane, DDT and other insecticides, A. G. Bennett, Extension Entomologist, recommends using malathion.

Poultrymen, especially those who use the individual cage system, are having lots of trouble from flies. The flies are breeding in the droppings under the cages and in houses where dropping pits are used, the flies are breeding in the pits.

Put a stop to this fly breeding through the use of a 50% mala-thion emulsion concentrate as a residual spray. For large poultry operations, the entomologist recommends mixing one gallon of the concentrate with 50 gallons of water and adding one pound of sugar to attract the flies.

For small poultry houses, mix one cup of the concentrate to three gallons of water and add one-half pound of sugar. The walls and ceilings should be sprayed with the spray one week. Drop boxes under the cages and droppings pits should be sprayed also.

It may be dangerous to spray droppings and litter where hens, broilers or chicks have free access to scratch and stir it. For extra safety use this material on litter clippings only where the chickens are kept out of it.

Flies using insecticides in poultry houses to control flies, often build up fly control are rigid sanitation, keep dry litter, adequate ventilation and a lot of "uncrowding."

How is your home garden growing? Are you going to have a "green Christmas garden?"

By planting this fall garden now with leaf and head lettuce, mustard, turnips, beets, carrots, onions, tender greens, radishes, parsley, spinach and collards, in addition to many others, you can have green leafy vegetable through most of the winter.

Those vegetables planted during August should be side dressed now with the equivalent of a pint jar full of nitrate of soda for each 100 feet of row.

Billy Necessa of Kiln saw action in the football games last week between Pearl River Junior College and Holmes Junior College last Saturday.

Billy, playing in the line, was on the winning side as Pearl River led by three touchdowns.
